UNDERSTAND THE TAXI INDUSTRY

Being a taxi driver requires you to be polite, patient, outgoing, helpful and professional. As a taxi driver you will be self-employed and earn on a job by job basis. With potential to earn over £1000 on a weekly basis.

SPEAK TO OUR DEDICATED DRIVERS MANAGER

Next step is to speak to our dedicated drivers manager Rob. Rob will help you understand the entire process to become a driver, including helping you through the application process.

INDUCTION

Once all the pieces are together and you are ready to start, Rob will walk you through what is expected of you as a driver, how to maximize your earning potential, additional area knowledge, customer service tips, etc...

You won't be left in the dark, Rob and the team will help you where ever you need it.

ON THE ROAD

When on the road, you will meet our loyal customer base, quickly learn the importance of customer service, and how it can affect your tips. Be the best you can be in order to create a positive customer experience, gain request work and help the company gain repeat bussiness

END OF THE WEEK

Come the end of a full working week, you will be able to see how much you have earned that week. You will be issued an invoice for the work you have completed, which clearly shows your earnings for all cash, card and account work.
